

Description générale

Inhalational gas for use in general anaesthesia in combination with other agents.

|                            |                                                                                                        |
|----------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Codes ATC                  | N01AX13                                                                                                |
| Type de médicament         | Gas                                                                                                    |
| Historique des statuts LME | Ajouté pour la première fois en 1977 (TRS 615) pour Anaesthetics and therapeutic gases |
| Wikipédia                  | Nitrous oxide ↗                                                                        |
| DrugBank                   | Nitrous oxide ↗                                                                        |

Recommandations

Section General anaesthetics and oxygen > Inhalational medicines

Respiratory > Inhalation:

Indications

Anaesthetics and therapeutic gases

